3. Engage with clients in the most effective way with Live Video & Text Chat

It's that simple! It increase sales and conversion rates.

Text + Video chat:

Anyone visiting your website will be able to immediately start a chat or speak with your company via text or instant video chat.

The only requirement would be that whoever will be taking these inquiries has a camera and microphone on their computer.

Sales insight data:

You will have full data about the customer. With this information, you will be able to lead the conversation the right way to virtually always close the deal.

Marketing reporting:

Get your marketing data from a sales perspective.

You are able to decide on which campaigns are the most effective, so that you can focus your efforts on them with proven and measured results and stop the ineffective ones.

It gives significant advantage to your company by providing you with a way to engage with virtually every site visitor before they go to another competitor site...
