"...Butterfly, Soul, and Bringer of Good News"

My line, Inspire Psyche Terry was created because of the inspiration that has come from my story, and, through this line, my goal is to inspire even more women to live greater, fuller lives. I worked hard as a mom and a wife and made huge sacrifices along the way to achieve my dreams of starting my own business. I want women everywhere to know that they can accomplish anything they set their mind to. My name Psychelia actually means butterfly, soul, and bringer of good news. So, I'm so happy to bring my dreams to life and share this good news of inspiration with my friends and family by way of Inspire Psyche Terry.

Fashion with Energy and Soul
FOR FASHION CONSCIOUS CURVY WOMEN

Since 70% of Americans wear a size 14 or larger, our lingerie focuses on women sizes 14 to 24. We target women that do not want to be called plus size. They are fashion conscious curvy women. They are the norm in America. They want great fit and fashion designed for them. Fashion with energy and soul.

We design and manufacture full figured bras for curvy women. Our sizes range from 36DD to 40DDD. We consider ourselves a fashion foundation product for the masses. We want to make the very best product for them. We are taking Americas "go to" bra and making it great.
